Artist of the Month

Joan Kent

Joan received a BFA in painting from Boston University, studying with artists such as Arthur Polonsky, Jack Kramer, and Lloyd Lillie.

Following graduation she continued her studies at the Worcester Art Museum, the Danforth Art Museum and the Rhode Island School of Design as well as studying privately with Robert Cormier of the Boston School of Painting.

Finding The Way Acrylic by Joan Kent

Joan has been a part of several art associations, including Taunton, Foxboro, Franklin, Boston Visual Artist's Union, and most recently, the Dedham Art Association and Brickbottom Artist's of Somerville. She has exhibited in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and upstate New York, including Premier Image Gallery in Ashland, Mobius Gallery in Boston, the Grove Street Gallery in Worcester and the Women's Studio Workshop in New York. She has also worked on commission, painting house portraits, animal portraits and landscapes.

Joan lived for many years in Norfolk, Massachusetts where she raised her two children. She recently retired from her full time job as a laboratory technician and began her move towards abstract painting, finding herself better able to express her feelings via color, shape, and design. Her preferred mediums are acrylic on both paper and canvas, and pastel due to the vibrancy of the color and quick drying times.

Joan is looking forward to devoting her retirement to her artwork. She currently resides in Dedham with her companion of 11 years and 2 cats. Her work can be found on Instagram, as "jartseid", and her web page is marcel.pt/joan\_kent.

She painted a landscape from memory for the demonstration.
