

Welcome Back to our First Meeting - 6:45 pm

Tuesday, September 12th at 6:45 - 8:45 pm

Endicott Estate, 656 East Street in Dedham and on Zoom

Welcome Back!

Welcome back to our Fall programming. We had a busy summer. Summer activities included a Museum Trip to Cape Ann Museum to see “Edward Hopper in New England” and three plein air get togethers. The Painting Group continued to meet on Tuesdays. We hosted free children’s art projects at the Dedham Farmer’s Market and at Arts@ Endicott.

Do you have any art news to share? Any interesting art events in the area? I’d like to include it in the newsletter. Please let me know by the 15th of every month by email at DedhamArtAssociation@gmail.com. Thanks!

Cindy Baron to Demonstrate

Please join us for the initial meeting of the year on Tuesday, September 12th at the Endicott Estate ballroom (656 East Street in Dedham) beginning at 6:45 PM and on Zoom. Cindy Baron will give an oil painting demonstration. Zoom links will be emailed a few days before our meeting.

Cindy is nationally recognized in both watercolors and oils, painting the grand landscapes of the western mountains and coastal shorelines.

Raised in South Bend, Indiana she has had the experience of living and painting all over the country. Her art career started early when her 1st grade teacher noticed her drawings, which lead to weekends assisting teachers through high school at the Art Center in town. A full-time artist, she conducts workshops across the country and internationally and has taught at the Rhode Island School of Design in their Continuing Education department.

Morning's Shelter, oil on panel by Cindy Baron

Her passion in the arts began with pastels, which then led to watercolors and in 2000 was awarded signature status of The American Watercolor Society. In 2019, she became a master signature member of Oil Painters of America, and is among a select group of artist that has received acknowledgment from her peers in both mediums. A plein air painter enthusiast and her extensive travels have given Cindy an abundance of information and knowledge, which she shares with her students. She has become a highly sought after instructor, teaching her skills around the country and Continuing Education classes to teachers. She has had the privilege of judging many award shows and has been featured in numerous publications.

Her paintings reflect the beauty that is found in nature, if you take the time to study the colors around you. She can capture beauty in a blustering storm or the tranquil air of everyday places. Her portraits relay a story of human life as though they were family or friend. The versatility of mediums, subjects, keeps her energized, excited and creative. She finds that each medium has influenced the other, which gives her paintings a wall of their own.

Artist of the Month

Ivona Bogojevic

“I began drawing and coloring since I was 5 years old and developed two loves for creating colorful art and studying music—the piano. I chose to dedicate my time to piano that later became my life's profession in performing and teaching. Though I never completely abandoned art, I continued drawing as a hobby. After I married my husband, his uncle, a famous European painter, inspired and encouraged me to take up oil painting. My husband and I are from Belgrade, Serbia. We moved to Paris, New York and Boston to become US Citizens.

Afternoon on the River, Oil by Ivona Bogojevic

Having more time for art, I explored pastels and watercolor then discovered my true passion for oil painting.

After a couple of years as a self-taught artist, I realized I needed more knowledge and joined Rosemarie Morelli Art Studio School where I continue to paint.

I love nature so painting landscapes that are conducive to a serene mood are my favorite subjects. Capturing the contrasts between lights and shadows are always inspiring to achieve. I also enjoy rendering portraits of people and some animals such as horses and dogs.

I enjoy exhibiting my paintings in Dedham Art Association's exhibits.”

Summer Recap Museum trip to Cape Ann Museum for the Edward Hopper Exhibit

Dedham Art Association members visited the “Edward Hopper & Cape Ann” exhibit in Gloucester. Jean Veigas coordinated the outing – thank you, Jean! We enjoyed 60 artworks including watercolors, oils, charcoal sketches and etchings. Also included are examples of artworks by Hopper’s wife, Josephine, also an artist. [Photos attached.] After the museum, we walked to the wharf for lunch on a deck of the Blue Collar restaurant recommended for lobster rolls by one of our favorite demonstrators/workshop instructors, T.M.

Nicholas. It did not disappoint. Rain was forecasted but held off and we even saw a little sun while overlooking the harbor.

Recap Arts@Endicott

On a beautiful evening on August 2nd, we held our Children’s Art event and Small Works fundraiser at Arts@Endicott, the outdoor summer concerts sponsored by the Junior Women’s Club of Dedham. This is the second year in a row that we have been invited to participate.

We expected 100 kids and had well over that amount. The art activity was printing with tempura paint to create fireworks or flowers on mat board. The ages seem to range from about three to 10.

Thanks very much to member volunteers: Barbara Reynolds, Kathy Milster, Joan Kent, Kerry Hawkins and Naomi Wilsey. Allison Augur, our student intern who graduated in June also volunteered. The concert-goers enjoyed the reggae-style music of the performing band. Good news – donations were made to our fundraiser for the Dedham Food Pantry in exchange for 4" x 4" miniatures donated by our generous members.

Summer Plein Air Trips

Mark Richards and Lauren Kinghorn organized four plein air trips over the summer. Locations included The Bradley Estate and The Paul Revere Heritage Site in Canton, the Arnold Arboretum, and a spot by the Charles River in Needham. An October trip is planned for Saturday, October 14.

Thanks and Farewell To Our Student Interns

Isabel Salaun, Susie Plunkett and Sophia Vaz

This past year, we were fortunate to have help from a number of student interns. They were energetic and willing to help with a variety of projects from designing flyers, writing press releases to helping with our Children's Art events.

We wish them well in their college endeavors with our thanks: Allison Augur, (pictured) and Isabel Salaun. Susie Plunkett and Sophia Vaz were juniors last year and provided much-needed volunteer time.

If you know of a sophomore, junior or senior in Dedham who is interested in receiving Community Service hours in exchange for helping out as an unpaid student intern, please ask them to contact Naomi Wilsey, 617-513-5499 or send an email to DedhamArtAssociation@gmail.com.

Dedham Senior Center Solo Exhibit Mark J. Richards, Landscape Painter

Mark's exhibit at the Dedham Senior Center runs through September. The Dedham Senior Center is our ongoing rotating exhibit space.

Landscape painting is first and foremost the Artist's expression of self within the context of the natural environment.

Mark J. Richards landscapes are presented as portrait paintings that impact viewers to critically think about their world view, our environment, and their place within it: landscape paintings as being, doing, and finding out. He refers to these paintings as Color Seasons.

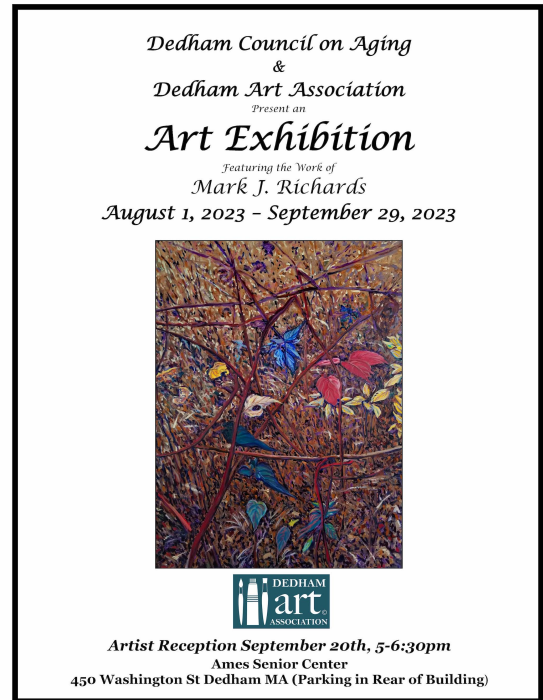

Each painting expresses nonverbal meanings that ask for immediate reflection. Mark's paintings challenge viewers to be emotionally affected by what is shown and by what is beyond the edges of each painting.

These natural motifs from nature lend themselves to active brush work, expressing decisiveness and authority of touch. Long, freely applied sweeps of complimentary colors surge forward and back to excite and challenge the depiction and understanding of forms from a psychological space within nature.

An Artist Reception will be held on September 20th, from 5-6:30pm and the Ames Building (Town Hall and Senior Center) at 450 Washington St, Dedham, and also on view M – F between 8:30 am – 4:30 pm. If you are interested in applying to exhibit at the Dedham Senior Center, please contact Barbara Sawin at 617-285-7672 or send an email to: DedhamArtAssociation@gmail.com.

Kerry Hawkins, photographer, will be exhibiting her artwork in November and December.
